SENATE ATTORNEY GENERAL

November 12, 1991

Dear Nebraskan:

I am pleased to send you the enclosed $5.00 Instant Redemption Certificate as part of the settlement of State of Nebraska v. Nintendo of America Inc., an antitrust lawsuit filed by my office on behalf of Nebraska Nintendo Console Purchasers. This is part of a nationwide settlement between Nintendo and the Attorneys General of all 50 States and the Corporation Counsel of the District of Columbia.

This certificate represents the court-approved mechanism for affording relief to those consumers whom, we claim, were overcharged for Nintendo Entertainment System consoles at retail stores as a result of Nintendo's resale pricing policies. Nintendo denies this claim. The company has cooperated fully with our office in bringing about this settlement.

We believe that this recovery represents a swift and successful settlement of what would have been a lengthy and complex lawsuit. In approving the settlement, the Federal Court concluded that the settlement is fair and that it provides sufficient monetary relief to qualified purchasers. The lawsuit and its prompt settlement also demonstrate how the antitrust laws can help to protect the consumers of our nation and state.

You can present this certificate at any retail store which carries Nintendo products to obtain a $5.00 discount towards the purchase of any Nintendo or Nintendo-licensed 8-bit video game cartridge. Please note that the certificate expires on March 15, 1992.

Sincerely,

DON STENBERG
Attorney General
